Welcome to Widend Touring Park

Here is caravanning and camping at its best.

In a truly beautiful setting with panoramic views of rolling Devonshire countryside, lies a park evolved over years of practical experience in catering for the touring enthusiast and now collecting award after award for excellence in all aspects.

The location is superb – only three miles from the beaches and attractions of Torbay, widely known as the English Riviera. Inland and behind us lie the foothills and river valleys of Dartmoor National Park, one of England's few remaining natural wild places.

This is a park for people who wish to escape worldly bustle for a while. Families love it. Young couples dream in it. Older folk wish they had found it earlier.

Widend is very much a garden park, landscaped with shrubs, hedges and trees to provide visual breaks, shelters and privacy. It is an immaculate park – showers, toilets and amenities are clean beyond reproach.

Above all it is comfortable. The site is well drained – we do not tolerate a soggy pitch. Paths and roadways are good and inclines easy. Facilities are convenient and well spaced. In fact the living here is very easy, relaxed, friendly and great fun.

Cockington Village, Torquay

Paignton & Dartmouth Steam Railway

The English Riviera and more...

Much more. The immediate coastline offers some forty miles of safe beaches in between high cliff walks, enchanting small harbours and river estuaries. These are havens for small sailing boats, fishermen and all manner of water interests.

In the resorts of the English Riviera – Torquay, Paignton and Brixham – you will find top shows, lively nightclubs, excellent shopping and fascinating attractions – Kents Cavern, Babbacombe Model Village, Bygones and the Paignton and Dartmouth Steam Railway to mention just a few.

Inland amidst beautiful countryside are ancient towns and villages, historic houses and a castle or two. Medieval and Elizabethan Totnes is only three miles away.

You can walk, ride, swim, fish and explore. You can rest a while in old world pubs or climb Dartmoor's granite tors. You will never run short of things to do or see.
